

2020 Mudgee Community Scholarship

Rural and regional health is something the University of Wollongong, like you, takes very seriously and we want to encourage more students from rural areas to pursue a career in health.

The Mudgee Region Community Scholarship was established in 2017 to provide students from the Mudgee region with the chance to realise their dreams of a career in health.

Value $2,500 per annum

Duration up to four (4) years

Area of Study Any undergraduate degree within the Faculty of Science, Medicine and Health or Bachelor of Public Health, Faculty of Social Sciences

Level of Enrolment All levels of an undergraduate degree

Applicants must have completed or will be completing their HSC in Mudgee, Gulgong or Kandos and demonstrate a commitment to the local region.

This scholarship is open to both future and current students of UOW.
